

ROAD FOLLOWS THE RIVER ROUTE

Out of Cloverport, Includes Magnificent Scenery. Intersects Oglesby Farm.

The survey which was halted by rain, is well into Hancock county now. The surveyors quit at Indian Lake, Saturday and they are now passing through Hawesville. Much progress is being made by the transit crew, as they are more familiar with the territory they are now passing over.

The survey route taken out of Cloverport passes to the right of The Castle, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mattingly, crossing the Oglesby farm and swings around the Light-foot farm striking the cliffs above the railroad. It then skirts around the lower bend of the Ohio as far as the government light on over the hill passing between the Midway church and school house on to Indian Lake.

The route along the river will be one of the most picturesque spots in the highway's course. At one point in this section of the route, the Ohio river can be seen for miles and miles both up and down the river. It is where the route runs on top of the cliff above the railroad track passing the Tar Springs and taking across the hill near the government light and then passing the Midway church at Indian Lake.

Owing to the bad conditions of the roads, the surveyors are now going back and forth on the trains, as the work now being done is along the railroad. The camp will be in Cloverport indefinitely.

DEATH CAUSED BY PNEUMONIA

Mrs. Dan Rhodes, of Axtel Is Buried In St. Anthony's Leaves Large Family.

Axtel, Ky., Jan. 13. (Special)—The death of Mrs. Mary F. Rhodes, wife of Mr. Dan Rhodes, occurred at her home near Axtel, on Tuesday, January 6, at 4 o'clock. Her death was caused from pneumonia.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Joseph Odenhal, pastor of the St. Anthony's church and her remains were laid to rest in the St. Anthony's grave yard.

Mrs. Rhodes is survived by her husband and five small children, also her mother, three sisters and three brothers, and many friends. She was a noble christian woman and will be missed by those to whom she was endeared.

MISS ELIZABETH LAWSON LOSES A BROTHER.

The remains of James Lawson, of Marion, Ky., were buried in Hawesville, Monday, of last week. The deceased was sixty-one years old and a former resident of Hawesville. He was a brother of Miss Elizabeth Lawson, Irvington, Ohio, who is well remembered in Cloverport, having been here several seasons as a trimmer for Mrs. J. N. Cordrey's millinery shop. Miss Lawson was in Hawesville to attend the funeral.

MRS. PARKER'S WILL SET ASIDE IN JEFFERSON COUNTY COURT.

The will of Mrs. Sarah Parker was set aside by a jury in the Jefferson county court, on last Monday. The will disposed of about $100,000 in real and personal property, and Mr. Lewis Perkins, of Ammons, Ky., a great nephew of the deceased, was one of the largest beneficiaries of the will. Since the setting aside of the will, Mrs. Perkins, mother of Mr. Lewis Perkins, gets all of the estate.

MISS WHEELER IN NEW YORK

Among the Louisville buyers who were registered in the New York hotels, last week, was Miss Edith Wheeler for the Cannon Byers Millinery Company.

Miss Wheeler is a sister of Miss Eunice Wheeler, of this city, and she has frequently been to New York as a buyer.

NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN METHODIST LIKELY TO BE UNITED SOON.

A meeting of the Commission on Unification of the Methodist Churches, North and South, of America, is scheduled to take place at the Fourth Avenue Methodist Church, Louisville, January 15, when it is expected a merger of the two branches of the church will be effected.

The division in the churches came in 1844 on the slavery question and the commission to bring about the merger consists of fifty members, equally divided between Southern and Northern representatives. The commission will be in session several days. Two Kentuckians are on the commission. They are the Rev. F. M. Thomas, Bowling Green, and Bishop J. M. Moore, formerly of Butler County, but now living in South America—Louisville Times.

HAMMAN HAS PART OF CONTRACT FOR PLACING PLATE GLASS WINDOWS

In last week's issue of The Breckenridge News it was stated that M. Weatherholt, General Contractor, had the contract for replacing the plate glass windows in the business houses on Main street. This was a mis-statement on the part of the News, and it has learned since that M. Hamman & Son have a share in this contract too.

Mr. C. W. Hamman, of the Hamman firm, is replacing the windows in the Golden Rule Store, Kentucky Creameries, Frank Oelze's, McGavock's Merchandise Store, and the pool room.

ROBINSON-PUMPHREY.

Mr. Jack Pumphrey and Miss Violet Robinson, of Holt, were married in Hawesville, December 28, by Rev. W. J. Gammon. The bride and groom were accompanied to Hawesville by Misses Myra Robinson and Mamie Jordan. Messrs. Earl Ahl and Levy Robinson, of this county.

Mr. Pumphrey is the son of Mrs. W. G. Pumphrey, of Holt, with whom he lives on a farm.

LOCAL ORGANIZATION OF BOY SCOUTS HAS TWELVE MEMBERS.

Rev. J. R. Randolph, Scout Master, And Local Council Elected.

Cloverport has its first organization of Boy Scouts of America. The Scouts were organized last Friday afternoon with twelve members and Rev. J. R. Randolph as their Scout Master.

Eight members include one patrol, and this branch, which becomes a part of the national organization hopes to have enough members very soon to make two patrols.

The local executive committee for the Scouts consists of three members, namely D. B. Phelps, Marion Weatherholt and Leonard Oelze.

Those who are already scouts are: Elmer Carson, John Cordrey, Robert Oelze, Russel Perkins, Marion Furrow, Chas. Bohler, John Lawson, M. D. Seaton, Lathrop Reid, Leonard Weatherholt, Samuel E. Conrad and Lewis Beavin.

CLAIM THERE IS PROFITEERING ON HAWAIIAN CANNED PINEAPPLE

Honolulu, Jan. 6.—Claiming that wholesalers and jobbers in San Francisco are profiteering on Hawaiian canned pineapples the pineapple canners of Hawaii have appealed to S. C. Huber, United States District Attorney here, to take the matter up with Mrs. Annette Adams, District Attorney at San Francisco.

He is charged by the pineapple canners here that while they are sending their product to San Francisco and selling it at less than $4 a case of twenty-four cans the price to the retailers on the coast is $9.20, representing a profit to the wholesalers and jobbers of more than 110 per cent. A two and one-half pound can of canned pineapples sells for twenty-five cents retail in Honolulu, while in San Francisco it costs 45 cents.

SCHOOL BOARD APPOINTS NEW PRIMARY TEACHER TO SUCCEED MISS WROE.

Mrs. J. R. Randolph has been appointed by the local school board to teach the primary grades in the Cloverport Public school until the close of the term, succeeding Miss Julia Wroe, who has had to give up her work on account of her health.

Mrs. Randolph is the wife of Rev. Randolph, pastor of the Methodist church in this city, and she is an experienced primary teacher.

FLORIDA HAS ONLY DEPOSIT OF GYPSUM SOUTH OF VIRGINIA.

Small Swamp in Central Part With About 200,000 Tons.

The only deposit of gypsum south of Virginia and east of Mississippi River is in a swamp in central Florida. It has been known for many years but remains to-day undeveloped, although it lies in a populous part of the country and is several hundred miles from any other deposit. It is the soft earthy variety of gypsum known as gypsite and could be used for application to agricultural land, particularly on peanut crops, and also for making wall plaster, plaster boards, and building blocks.

The deposit is small, the available quantity probably being not more than 200,000 tons. It could be mined by steam shovel or floating dredge and delivered to the railroad near Panasoffkee by a 4-mile haul. No one, however, has yet undertaken to develop this deposit because of its small size and its location in a swamp and because the Florida market for gypsum products is easily supplied by gypsum producers in Virginia and by producers in the Atlantic Coast States using gypsum from Nova Scotia. The Florida gypsum deposit is described by R. W. Stone in the chapter on "Gypsum from Mineral Resources of the United States for 1918," a copy of which may be obtained free of charge on application to the Director, United States Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

OLD RESIDENT OF THE COUNTY DIES

Willis Payne, Brother of the County Judge. Nine Children Survive.

Mr. Willis Payne, a life long resident of Breckenridge county, passed away at his late home in Harned, on Monday of last week. His remains were laid to rest in the Scott cemetery near his home. Pneumonia caused his death.

Mr. Payne was 80 years old. He was a brother of the County Judge, S. B. Payne. Surviving him are nine children: five sons, Pleas Payne, Hardsburg, Charlie, Silas, Cobert and Taylor Payne, of Texas. Four daughters, Mrs. Eli Pile and Mrs. James Knott, of Harned; Miss Hattie and Nannie Payne, of Texas.

BASHAM FAMILY MOVES HERE FROM HARDINSBURG

Mr. Maston Basham and family arrived in Cloverport last week where they have come to make their new home.

Mr. Basham bought the Bohler property in the West End, and near his home he with his son, Herbert Basham are engaged in handling a grist mill.

NEW ARRIVAL WEIGH-ED FIFTEEN POUNDS.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scales, Cloverport, are the proud parents of a son, John Arthur Scales, who arrived January 7, and weighed 15 lbs.

Mr. Scales is an employee of the L. H. & St. L. R. R. shops and he is a very proud "Daddy."

FACTS OF INTEREST ABOUT HIGHWAY

Garfield is Highest Point in Route—Tip Top Next, Sea Level Varies.

In the survey of the Ohio River Federal Route, some interesting facts are to be noted concerning the line so far surveyed to Cloverport.

Tip Top is 780 feet above the sea level and was thought to be the highest point along the route, but Garfield, Breckenridge county is 850 feet above the sea level, being the great divide of this route.

Hardsburg is also up in the air. It is 712 feet above the sea level, yet Harned is 138 feet higher than Hardsburg. Cloverport is 412 feet above the sea level and Hardsburg need not worry because Harned is higher than they are for Hardsburg has it over Cloverport, being 300 feet higher than the latter.

The sea level at Hawesville is 420 feet and Cloverport is just 8 feet higher than that city.

High Water Mark Varies.

Another interesting fact brought out in the survey that should interest river people is that the high water mark at West Point is 420 feet, and the lower wharf in Cloverport it is 406 feet, making a fall in the Ohio river between Cloverport and West Point of 14 feet, or a fall of 15 feet gauge below the locks at Louisville.

So now when the travelers get in their "Tin Lizzies" and start on a trip to Louisville, they will have 85 miles ahead of them starting in front of the post-office at Cloverport. Before getting to Garfield they have a climb of 438 feet. However, the grade will be so gradual that one will hardly know when they arrive at the top.

No Coasting On S. C. Hill.

When nearing Sinking Creek Hill, autoists will need their gasoline tanks well filled and expect no coasting down Sinking Creek Hill for they will be sadly disappointed. On this Hill some of the most clever work of the engineers has been executed. They spiraled around this hill in a little over a 2 per cent grade, where the railroad has not only a steeper grade and spent many weeks of surveying, while the federal road surveyors were only a few days and have but one bridge to build.

As the tourists leave the city limits of Cloverport they will be almost on a direct East line until they cross the Stephensport road, and if they have a compass they will find themselves surveying around a letter S curve, one going South toward Balltown. After one is again headed for the Hites Run bridge, and when climbing the Miller hill, it will be so easy spiraling this hill on the gradual grades that folks will be surprised when they get to the summit of it.

MAIN STREET PROPERTY SOLD AND GROUND LEASED.

Will Jones, who lost his property in the fire Christmas, has purchased from Dr. Chas. Lightfoot the store room on the corner of Main street opposite Fisher's Drug Store. The lot where the building stands is the property of Dr. F. L. Lightfoot from whom Jones leased it. The building is being repaired and will be used for a pool room.

NOTES FROM GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Rep. Cain Gives Some Side-lights on Kentucky's Executive Body at State Capital.

"HAY SEEDS" LEAD

On January 6th, the General Assembly convened, organized and adjourned until the following Monday. I have met and conversed with almost all of the members of both Houses and my impression is that beneficial legislation is assured. Without a doubt better schools and roads are just ahead.

As to profession and occupation the members are classed as follows: of the Senate, Lawyers, fifteen; Farmers, six; Physicians, five; Bankers, two; Teachers, one; and one each Merchant, Broker, Mine Operator, Manufacturer, Salesman, Lumber, Real Estate, Railroad Contractor and Automobile Dealer. Of the House, Farmers, thirty; Teachers and Bankers, five; Lawyers, twenty-four; Bankers, three; Physicians, ten; Ministers, four; Merchants, five; Salesmen, four; Insurance Agents, four; Druggists, two; Lumber Dealers, two and one each Teacher, Oil Operator, Bookkeeper, Distiller, Electrician, Transfer and Auto Dealer.

You will note that, including Farmers and Teachers, the farmer leads. Watch us "Hay Seeds!"

Meets Interesting Member.

Always in an aggregation of this kind, there are certain individuals, who by their personal appearance or manner command especial attention. On presentation I was greatly impressed by one such and I shall always remember him. He is one of the most homely men I ever saw. In fact so homely that he is really interesting. His dress was extremely ordinary and in marked contrast to the usual regulation. I watched him during the caucus and the opening of the curiously interested in all of the proceedings. A friend joined me in the session and noticed that he was particularly interested in the session and we decided he was no fool. Later I had a chat with him, during which I soon found that I had best do the listening, else he would have me floundering 'round in deep water. I understand that, among other things he practices law and that notwithstanding a meager education, the highly trained attorneys of his district dread him as an opponent for the same reason that he has never lost a case. Also I am informed that he is worth $50,000.00 and that he acquired his fortune unaided. So much for appearances.

Favored Suffrage Amendment.

The General Assembly moved quickly and favorably on the Woman's Suffrage Amendment, thus making twenty-four states that have ratified and leaving twelve short of the required number. These twelve will undoubtedly be gained on the convening of Assemblies of states that have not yet passed upon the question. Your Representative supported the Amendment.

The members of the joint session, of both political parties, approved and applauded the measures recommended by the Governor in his message, which was delivered in person, and the prospect is for a harmonious session.

Primary Election Law.

It is recommended that the Primary Election law be amended in so far as it effects candidates for State offices. It is claimed that the law has failed in its purpose as regards these, but that it has operated successfully in Judicial, Congressional and all other districts.

As I understand it, the purpose of this law was to give the people an opportunity to choose their candidates in ballot in substitution for the practice of having these selections made by a few men in delegate or mass convention. For this reason, I have always approved it. However, if it is shown that a large majority of the voters are indifferent to the opportunity that the law affords them, if many good and worthy men are deterred from seeking office, because of the time, labor and expense incurred in making two races for one office then, in view of the considerable expense involved, which we of course have to bear, it looks like the law should be repealed. I see no advantage in amending it in favor of certain offices.

There is a strong sentiment in favor of removing the Judiciary from politics, alright, but I question the feasibility of such a plan. There is also a sentiment in favor of having School Superintendents appointed by the State and County Board instead of being elected. I am opposed to any such arrangement.

Bosworth Elected Speaker.

In 1896, Hon. Charles Blanford was elected the first Republican Speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives. On the opening of the present session, that honor was conferred upon Hon. Joe F. Bosworth, who is the second Republican to occupy the Speaker's chair.

Before the vote electing Mr. Bosworth, was announced, Representative Waggoner, (Dem.) moved that he be elected by acclamation. In his address Mr. Waggoner stated that Joe was the "Black Sheep" of the family. That he was born of Democratic parents, sucked a Democratic teat and was rocked in a Democratic cradle.

He said he had heard Joe's father say that "he had five sons and Joe." He concluded his remarks by stating, "With all Joe's faults we love him still."

Hoping to hear from you on any of the questions in which you are interested, I remain, Yours sincerely, Roy. J. Cain.

ROY MULLEN INJURED IN FALL FROM ENGINE.

Roy Mullen, formerly of Cloverport, was badly injured on Sunday, January 4, when he fell from the water tank on an engine breaking his arm and cutting a big dash in his scalp. He fell to the ground, a distance of 16 feet.

Mullen was 150 miles from Ravenna where he lives, when the accident happened, and he was taken back immediately to his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mullen.

HAS BEEN WITH ONE OF THE OLDEST MILLINERY FIRMS FOR 33 YEARS.

Thirty-three years of service with one of the oldest millinery firms in the country is the record of Mr. Will Watkins, now of St. Joseph, Mo., but whose boyhood was spent in Cloverport. Mr. Watkins is with the Englehart-Davison Merchandise Company which is rounding out its seventieth year of business and is third to the oldest millinery house in the United States.

Mr. Will Watkins and his brother, Mr. Thos. S. Watkins are both connected with the same firm and their number of years of service proves their worth to this well known concern.

SCHOOL NEWS AND VIEWS

By J. Raleigh Meador, Superintendent.

At a Teachers' Association held at Hardsburg, on December 20, 1919 the teachers of the First Educational Division of Breckenridge county voted to form a Teachers Federation. Officers were elected and a committee appointed to draft by-laws. A meeting will be held in the near future for the purpose of adopting the by-laws and taking other necessary steps toward getting the organization in working order.

Kingswood school with Mr. Chintz Royalty as teacher has organized a Thrift Society with 36 members and each member pledged to purchase $2 worth of Thrift Stamps per month. They expect to increase this amount later. Miss Jane Thompson is President and Miss Dorothy Wright secretary-treasurer.

The schools of the county have raised to date $1059.22 for the Kentucky Children's Home Society and this amount has been forwarded to the Treasurer, Mr. Chas. F. Leathers, of Louisville.

The Mid-Winter term of the State Normal School at Bowling Green will begin January 27. There is plenty of free tuition for all teachers who wish to attend and every one who expects to teach next year should attend at least two terms at the Normal this spring. In the near future professional training is going to be required, and those who start in time will have the advantage. Let's have the biggest delegation at Bowling Green this spring ever sent from Breckenridge county.

The examination for Common School Diploma will be held at Hardsburg on Friday and Saturday January 16 and 17. The examination will also be held at Irvington and uary 30, and 31. This examination Cloverport in either January or May if those places can have a sufficient number of applicants to justify it.

The following schools have closed the years work and made the report for the term. The names of the school is given with the teacher's name following:

Kingswood, C. Royalty; Freedom, Jesse Brumington; Garfield, Mrs. Alvah Beauchamp and Miss Jacie Alexander; Perrin, Miss Martha Harned; Post Oak, Miss Viola Kiper; McDaniels, Miss Bessie Galloway; Beech Grove, Givan Jackson; Constantine, Hobson Hall; Rhodes, Miss Florence Rhodes.

The average attendance for the term for the nine schools reported was 26 pupils. This was 49 per cent of the census in those districts.

We received the contribution made by your school some days ago, but owing to the rush of business we have been unable to send you a receipt until today.

Please accept our heartfelt thanks for this donation and extend our appreciation to your pupils and all who contributed to this amount.

We know you will be happier to know you have had a small share in the building of the much needed Home in the country for Kentucky's destitute children. Enclosed you will find an official receipt for $1,059.22, the amount of the donation sent from your school. Thanking you again and hoping you will some day visit our Home and see our work, I am, Yours sincerely, Geo. L. Sehon, Superintendent Kentucky Children Home Society.

PRICES GOOD ON LOOSE LEAF FLOOR

Good Sale Tuesday. Burley Brought $10 Higher Than Previous Sales.

The Cloverport Loose Leaf Tobacco house had another good sale Tuesday morning. Good tobacco sold well; Burley sold for about $10 higher than it has in previous sales, 9,335 pounds of Burley brought $14 to $43.

The low grades of tobacco sold low. There was 37,750 pounds of Pryor sold at prices ranging from $7.75 to $41.

A. N. Skillman & Son sold 2,750 pounds of Pryor at an average of $24.07; 2,400 pounds of red at an average of $21. Their leaf tobacco brought $31. Frank Jolly sold several baskets at $7.25 to $18.

Evidently the farmers were well pleased with the prices of Tuesday's sale for there were very few rejections.

The Cloverport Loose Leaf market is in keeping with any market in the Green River district. In the local house's sworn statement to the government it gave the average for Burdinsburg to attend the sale on Tuesday.

The buyers went from here to Harley $28.36 and Pryor at $17.45. day afternoon on the Breckenridge Loose Leaf floor.

TEACHING BLIND STUDENTS OF STATE, CARE OF SICK THROUGH THE A. R. C.

The Louisville Chapter of American Red Cross has organized a "Teaching Center" where classes are instructed in "Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick." One of the most interesting of these classes is the one composed of students from the Kentucky Blind School, and Miss Jane Hambleton is an instructor for the blind students. Miss Hambleton's picture appeared in the Louisville Herald, Monday, giving a very interesting account of her new work.

LOCAL CHURCH NOTES.

At the Presbyterian church next Sunday Rev. T. N. Williams will teach the adult Bible class at 9:45. The regular service at 11 a. m. and at 7:15 p. m. Mr. Williams will preach on "The Present Day Unrest and What We May Do To Calm It." Every one who is not in some other Sunday school is cordially invited to the Bible class.

The Sunday school class of Mrs. R. B. Pierce, of the Methodist church has been awarded a banner for gaining the most points in a contest held in the school during the fall and part of the winter months. Mrs. Pierce's class made 1100 points. Her pupils are the young boys and girls of the intermediate ages.

The Baptist Woman's Missionary Society held a most profitable meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. C. English in the West End. There were twenty-four members present and the general collection amounted to $92.46.

PREACHING IN STEPHENSPO

Rev. W. S. Shipp, pastor of the Baptist church, Stanley, Ky., will preach in the Stephensport Baptist pulpit on Sunday, January 25.

PRUNING PAYING PRACTICE.

When trees are properly spaced, nature "self prunes" the lower branches. But in farm timber tracts of small pines and with valuable kinds of trees, pruning is often a paying practice, say forestry specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture, if it is done during the slack time of winter.

CLERGYWOMAN TELLS WHAT MAKES 100 PER CENT MAN.

Malden, Jan. 4.—The 100 per cent man from a woman's viewpoint must be a Christian gentleman, must not smoke, chew or swear, and must conduct himself at home in the same gentlemanly manner that he does in the presence of his best girl or when on the street. So says Eva Ryerson Ludgate, who has traveled to Europe seven times and also toured this country. She gave her opinions to hundreds of the male sex in the Center Methodist Church this afternoon.

"Many a man who can gracefully cross the floor at a dance to pick up a handkerchief dropped by a lady cannot carry a hod of coal upstairs for his wife at home" said Rev. Miss Ludgate.

"The 100 per cent man is clean of mouth and does not use profanity. I despise a man who makes his mouth a sewer pipe."

"PEANUT" UNIT LOOKED GOOD

But After Receiving Letter From Agricultural Department "City Sucker" Did Not Invest.

A city man got a very glowing circular from a Chicago "development company" offering him ten acres of land in Florida for the surprisingly small sum of $2,500—a "peanut unit" the circular called it. He could grow, the circular said, a thousand bushels of peanuts on his ten acres and could sell the peanuts—allowing for low prices—at $2 a bushel. The city man was impressed; but he sent the circular to the department of agriculture with a query as to whether or not the investment was a good one.

Following are some sentences from the letter he got in reply: "The literature is of the kind designed to deceive city people in the North and West who do not know anything about farming." "The average return from ten acres of peanuts would not exceed $700 to $800." "You could buy a 100-acre farm in almost any of the counties of western Florida, including the one mentioned in the circular, for the price these people ask for ten acres."

"The whole 'unit' system, whether it is pecans, peaches, figs, cane, peanuts, hogs, or what not, is simply a means of selling land at three to five times what it is worth to ignorant or unwary small investors." "To pay $2,500 for this ten acres of land would stamp you as a 'sucker' of the rankest class."—Exchange.

Pallor, Headaches And Shortness of Breath Disappear

Pepto-Mangan Sold in Liquid and Tablet Form

Why should any girl or young woman continue to have a pale, sallow complexion and a listless run-down system devoid of energy and vitality?

Such young folks are continually unhappy and dejected simply because they accept such a condition as their misfortune, and envy their friends who are in the bloom of health and enjoying all the good things of life.

If such young women would realize the fact that their anemic condition is probably due to thin, impoverished blood, which could be easily enriched by Pepto-Mangan, how much happier and attractive they would be.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is a safe, beneficial and pleasant tonic for anyone suffering from any ailment caused by poor blood. If taken regularly for a few weeks it will enrich the blood with thousands of the healthy red-blood cells that are needed to carry nourishment to every part of the body.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in both liquid and tablet form. Both contain the same medical ingredients.

Buy Pepto-Mangan at your drug-gist's. Be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan.—Advertisement.

TOKYO TO HAVE FIRST FAR EASTERN SUBWAY.

Tokyo.—The charter for the building of an underground railway has been given by the railway authorities to Mr. Tokuzi Hayakawa and other promoters, who some time ago presented an application for the rights. The project will take several years, and when completed will be the first underground railway in the Far East. The capital of the company will at first be yen 25,000,000. It is planned to accomplish the work in three periods, the trunk line reaching from Shinagawa to Asakusa via Ueno to be the first. It is estimated that this line will be built in three years, and can be opened to the public at the end of that time. Branch lines will be opened later, the whole system to be completed in about ten years. It is thought that the new system will do much toward relieving the congestion of passenger traffic.

NEGRO BOY'S AMBITION AROUSED BY FARM CLUB.

A most interesting instance of aroused ambition is that of Sherman Lynch, a Negro boy of Edwards, Miss., who is in a club supervised by the Department of Agriculture and the State colleges. Sherman joined the Farm Makers' Club, a club especially designed for Negro boys, in the fall of 1916. As a result of his work last year he was able to deposit $100 in the Bank of Edwards. With this $100 as an initial payment he has purchased 30 acres of land from his father, bargaining for the tract for the sum of $400.

EQUAL SUFFER- AGE WINS IN KY.

Opening of 1920 Gen. Assembly
Marked by Ratifying Amendment.

FIRST DAY POINTERS.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 7.—Equal suffrage triumphed in the General Assembly on opening day of the 1920 session, when the Senate, by a vote of 30 to 8, concurred in the House resolution ratifying the Federal amendment. The House voted suffrage by 73 to 25.

Victory of the women, marking their twenty-third State success, leaving them but thirteen States short of their goal, was the chief incident of a day in which Governor Morrow's inaugural message to the Assembly ranked a close second. The Governor advocated a number of reforms which he claimed would prove of material benefit to the Commonwealth.

Both Parties For It.

Republican leaders probably will point to the first-day triumph of the suffrage cause as an accomplishment of their party, but it is a fact that a substantial majority of the Democrats favored the equal rights proposition, while there were some Republicans who voted against it.

Divided as to parties, the vote in the Senate was: For suffrage, 14 Democrats, 16 Republicans; against, 6 Democrats, 2 Republicans. In the House the division was: For suffrage 47 Republicans, 25 Democrats; against 7 Republicans, 18 Democrats; absent, 1 Republican and 2 Democrats.

On the vote to substitute a State-wide suffrage amendment as a referendum on the national issue the vote in the Senate was 23 to 15 against such substitution. Twelve Democrats and three Republicans supported the motion made by Senator Harlan, while eight Democrats and fifteen Republicans opposed it.

First Day Pointers.

Lieutenant Governor Ballard had a busy day on the Senate tripod. Some of the parliamentary proceedings were a bit confusing, especially with the vote so close, and the "clinchers," which is to "move to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed, and then lay the motion on the table," was a matter which had to be explained to some new members. Mr. Ballard handles his trying position with much diplomacy and after he gets on to the senatorial ropes will, no doubt, rank with any presiding officer the Senate ever had.

Suffrage advocates wearing streamers with the magic words "Votes for Women" printed on them, surged back and forth between the House and the Senate. It was a triumphal procession for the advocates of equal rights, a day long looked forward to and they even were amazed with the celerity of the passage of their resolution.

Joseph F. Bosworth, new Speaker, did a graceful thing when he laid flowers presented to him on the desk of the Representative from Bourbon county, over which was draped a service standard, commemorating the loss of Capt. Reuben Hutchcraft, former Representative from that county, killed in the great war.

Maj. J. M. DeWeese, Hartford, Ohio county, new Adjutant General, greeted members of both houses. Major DeWeese is now busily engaged in forming plans for a new State militia organization. He wants to have artillery, infantry and cavalry units which will appeal to the younger element as well as the returned soldiers and officers who have been in the service. It is certain that whatever plan is arrived at will be based on a proposition of equality and when company officers are elected the former private and his quondam officer may change places.—By Robert E. Dundon in Louisville Times.

LOOK FOR ANOTHER POMPEII

Archeologists Expect to Uncover
Treasures of Art Hidden for Some Twenty Centuries.

During the war archaeological excavations were continued at the Italian colony of Syracusa on the north African coast, and now comes the news that what has been found already promises the uncovering of another ancient city as important as Pompeii. Once upon a time the spot was a Greek colony, with the civilization of Greece transplanted to the soil of Africa. The work has been carried on during the war under the supervision of Prof. Lucio Mariani, director of the archaeological service of the ministry of the colonies, and the prediction is now made that the newly discovered city will eventually prove actually richer than Pompeii in its evidence of a past civilization. Here have been found already statues of the Graces, a Hermes, an Eros, an Alexander the Great and most impressive of all, the Aphrodite of Cyrene, which is said by certain connoisseurs to be a fair rival in beauty to the Venus of Milo and the Venus of Callias. The discoveries have extended over a good many years. It may be added, however, as an illustration of the modified joys of archeology, and the introduction of a new mystery into the history of art, that the Aphrodite of Cyrene lacks both head and arms. The world may wonder what she looked like as well as what she was supposed to be doing.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Corp. Howard of Glen Dean.

To the Editor of The Breckinridge News: Please permit me to add a few items for the benefit of your paper. I think the people of the town of Glen Dean and its vicinity should take more pride in their home town and let other people know what they are doing.

Mr. Jesse M. Howard, Jr., gave a party in honor of his two cousins, Phillip T. Dempster, of Irvington, and Corporal William A. Howard, Battery F, 21st Field Artillery, Camp Bragg, Fayetteville, N. C., on the night of December 26th. A large crowd was present and all reported a good time. The guests were: J. M. Howard, Jr., William A. Howard, D. C. Moorman, Jr., Charlie Sparrow, Jones, and Shell Harlow, Misses Dixon, Herndon Butler, Paul Moorman, Robert Fisher, Earl Moorman, Carol and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jones.

After the party was over someone suggested that the party turn out with musical instruments such as tin pans and shotguns to serenade what was thought to be a bride and groom but the party was somewhat surprised to know that the couple were not married.

Miss Elizabeth Baxter has been visiting Miss Sue Bandy, of Irvington. Miss Byrd Baxter spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Baxter, of Rockvale, Ky.

Mr. Edward Baxter, Jr., has accepted a position as Conductor on the Louisville Electric Railway and likes his job fine.

Miss Byrd Baxter has returned to Richmond, where she is attending the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School.

Corporal William A. Howard has returned to Camp Bragg, N. C., where he has a study position and it is impossible for him to quit, but he will be discharged when his time is up.

Wishing everybody a successful and happy New Year. I am sincerely, William A. Howard.

From Sergt. Dutschke

To The Editor of The Breckinridge News: Well just a few lines to let you know what is going on out in this place. To some of you folks who take this paper this may not interest you, while it may to others.

The American Red Cross gave us boys here in Camp Maria one fine time on Christmas night. We had a quartette of ladies and one of soldiers who entertained us and they sure were fine. Then the boys were treated with presents, candy, nuts, cigarettes, apples and oranges. For all of this we were very grateful.

I sent an item to The Breckinridge News a short time ago about our two favorite officers, Capt. Mallory and Capt. Lamb, who gave our Detachment a large "feed." Just a little more about Capt. Lamb. He is a minister as well as a doctor. On the evening they entertained us Capt. Lamb gave us a most inspiring address and touched our hearts so that when he had finished there wasn't a man in the house with dry eyes.

The boys had ordered 5 gallons of soeto. Don't suppose the folks back in Kentucky know what that is, but it is like brandy to a certain extent. Well we were to have this at the dinner, and after the Captain's address the boys wouldn't have it, and we said we will send it back.

Lieut. Mallory is almost like a father to the outfit. He is going to Lachetis, New Mexico to be stationed while Capt. Lamb goes to Delco, Tex.

Well I suppose everyone had a fine Christmas at home. We had a dandy Christmas. Ran around here in our shirt sleeves. Haven't had any cold weather here or snow either. Greetings to all. Sergt. Geo. N. Dutschke, Camp Hospital Maria, Texas.

AFTER THE FESTIVE DAYS.

An Irish orator once spoke of festive days as if they were lighthouses along the coast of life to give brightness and point the true way. It is almost the invariable custom of a passenger on a ship to look backward to keep the lighthouse in sight as long as possible.

There seems to be something friendly in its shining lamps. Christmas and New Year's as if they were lighthouses full of cheer and gladness to look forward to, and comforting to look back to.

That little gift of yours touched a string upon the harp of life of your friend that will ring on for a long time and lighten the burden of life.

If anyone in your life has been overlooked, never mind the almanac dates, but do with diligence what is possible to mend the unintended disappointment.

Let the lower lights be burning along the shores of time.—John Wana-maker.

OUR REPRESENTATIVE

Our Representative Roy J. Cain gives us a most interesting and informing account of the opening of the General Assembly in a letter to The Breckenridge News published in this issue.

Rep. Cain favored our readers last year with these articles, and it is with the greatest pleasure that we publish them. By reading them, we not only learn the stand that our Representative takes on the important issues before the House, but he gives us an insight as to what is going on with the affairs of the State. He incidentally adds a touch of human occurrences now and then a bit of humor, so his writings are interesting, even to the school boy.

We trust our readers will enjoy Rep. Cain's articles, and if you like them tell him so!

Make Twelve Recommendations

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 6.—Twelve distinct recommendations were made in Governor Morrow's first message to the Kentucky General Assembly, briefly as follows:

- Abolition of useless offices and boards and commissions.
- Repeal of the Board of Control law, and divorce of State institutions from politics.
- School legislation, including a Survey Commission.
- Removal of the judiciary from politics and election under non-partisan plan.
- Ratification of Federal suffrage amendment.
- Enforcement of nation and State-wide prohibition.
- Repeal or amendment of the compulsory primary law.
- Dismissal of officers who surrender prisoners to mobs.
- Development of State's agricultural and natural resources, including stimulation and protection of the oil and gas industries.
- Creation of a more efficient Department of Labor.
- Construction of a permanent system of State highways.
- Correction and revision of present tax law and limitation of the arbitrary power of the State Tax Commission.

Under the head of useless officers he included: State Fire Marshal and Deputies; Dog License Inspectors, Chauffeur and Auto License Inspectors; State Forester and Deputy; Insurance Rating Board and entire automobile department, license collected to be placed in County Clerk's hands.

RIGHT MILKING OF COWS MORE THAN MOTIONS

Man Who Does it Well Knows
Lots of Little Things That Increase Quantity.

MUST BE VERY CLEAN

Do you know how to milk?

The question is neither irrelevant nor impertinent. In sober fact, a great many persons who milk cows twice a day really know little about the true art of it, and a great many more could add to their present knowledge.

The writer of this article met one of the men in the Dairy Division of the United States Department of Agriculture who knew how to milk. He was a tall, quiet gentleman.

"I'll just drive the cow in the office here," he said. And he did. She was a pasteboard cow, to be sure, but she served very nicely to illustrate several things about milking. And following are a few of the essential things that this man who knows how to milk said about milking.

First Comes Cleanliness.

The first essentials are clean, healthy cows and a clean, healthy milker.

The next, perhaps, is a clean and sterilized pail with a narrow or partially covered top.

The cow should be curried before milking to remove loose hairs, dirt, and dandruff. This should be done, if possible, an hour before milking to allow all dust to settle before milking is begun.

The next thing in order is a sort of sponge bath for the cow. It is a very simple matter, though, for all that is required is a pail of clean water and a cloth. Wash off and wipe the udder, the flanks, the thighs, and the switch.

That done, everything is ready for the actual milking—which process, by the way, should be approached with hands that are not only clean, but dry.

The milker sits down on a stool placed on the right side of the cow. It is not very clear just why the right side is universally the milking side. Perhaps it is partially due to the fact that the great majority of persons are right handed. The milker on the right side of the cow, if she starts to kick or to move, is in a better position to yank the pail out of harm's way before she can unsettle it.

The milker then grasps a teat in the palm of each hand. He squeezes the teat by closing the fingers around it and at the same time pulling the teat slightly downward. Then the fingers are loosened around the teat and the hand raised slightly to allow the teat to assume its original form and position, while the other hand squeezes and pulls slightly downward on the other teat. Thus each hand alternately gives a downward squeeze, in rhythmic order.

Getting Rid Of Bacteria.

It is wise to milk about two squirts out of each teat before allowing any milk to go into the pail. Bacteria appear to accumulate around the end of the teat and to be got rid of largely in this way.

Then clasp the small-top milk pail between the knees, with the covered portion of the top nearest the milker. If held in this position the covered portion will prevent hairs and dirt from falling into the milk.

Milk quietly but rapidly. The milker makes use of the mother instinct in the cow. Harshness is against that instinct and the cow does not secrete as much milk as she would if she were milked and handled quietly.

It must be remembered that not all the milk is in the udder when the milking process is begun. The cow secretes milk more rapidly during the milking process; and the milking, to be successful, must be done in such a way as to promote that secretion. If it is done so as to give pain to the cow or to alarm or disquiet her, she will not give so much milk.

Keep milking as long as possible to get any milk. The last milk is the richest. The first milk drawn is always comparatively low in butterfat. It is the "strippings" or last milk given, that contain the highest per cent of butterfat.

Milk Should Be Weighed.

Well, that is about all there is to the milking process. A great many things are related to it. The Department of Agriculture recommends that milk should be weighed daily. There are several reasons for this. One is that the ration should be adjusted to the weight of milk. A safe rule, the Department experts say, is 1 pound of grain to every 3½ or 4 pounds of milk. Another, and perhaps more accurate, rule is to feed as many pounds of grain a day as the cow gives pounds of butterfat in a week; but this latter rule is not so conveniently applied in the case of the family cow, because of the necessity of making a Babcock test for butterfat.

The weight of milk produced, in proportion to the grain ration, is of particular importance during the first 30 days after the cow freshens. She is at that time most easily able to establish her working basis. Her milk-secreting glands are sensitive, her digestive apparatus active. A few days after she becomes fresh, increase her grain one-half to three-quarters of a pound a day, and see how much milk she gives the following day. Keep up the increase from day to day as long as she responds with enough increase in milk to pay for the increased grain. When the point is reached where the milk flow fails to increase with increased feeding, reduce the grain ration a pound or two, and keep along this line until the point is found at which the cow produces the greatest and most economical flow of milk. Then fix this as her regular grain ration as long as she produces that amount of milk.

OUR SIDE OF IT.

We're not ashamed of the uniform, And if you are a friend You will never say a word against it. Any word that will offend. It has covered honored bodies, And by heroes has been worn Since the days of the Republic, When the stars and stripes were born.

Uniforms have many patterns, Some are khaki, some are blue, And the men who chose to wear them Are of many patterns too. Some are sons of wealthy parents, Some are college graduates, Some have many, many virtues, Some are simply reprobates.

We have many skilled mechanics, Men of brains and letters who Loyal have served their country That they are a credit too; No indeed they are not all angels Blackguards? Yes we've some of those But when they came into the service They all wore civilian clothes.

Men of all kinds when they are drinking Misbehave act rough, and swear— Drunken soldiers or civilians Are disgusting anywhere! Grant us then your kind forbearance We'll appreciate it more Than a lot of noisy cheering, When we are leaving for war.

We have sat with you in public And have smelled your whiskey breath, Heard remarks insane and silly Nearly boring us to death. Though we offered no objections — When in theatres we have met, You think that you should exclude us From the most exclusive set.

If you meet us out in public, On the street or anywhere; We don't merit sneering glances, Nor a patronizing stare. For we have an honored calling As our garments plainly show You may be a thief or parson, How on earth are we to know?

I don't care for your profession Occupation what you do, When your looking at a soldier And he is looking at you; Who is there to judge between you, As you stand there man to man? Only one the great Almighty Name another if you can.

Drop your proud and naughty bearing And your egotistic pride, Get acquainted with the soldier And the heart and soul inside. Test and try to analyze him Criticise him through and through And you will very likely find him Just as good a man as you. —By William A. Howard.

EVENTS THAT TRANSPIRED TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Taken From The Breckenridge News, Wednesday, Jan. 2nd 1895

In Cloverport.

Lillard's Tobacco Manufacture is moving right along, employing from five to eight men.

Hon. "Till" Groves secured the First Assistant Doorkeeper's place in the Indiana Legislature.

Wave Pate caught two rabbits in one snare—beating the record for snaring.

Frank Payne is now our deputy sheriff and has his pockets full of papers.

Madam rumor has it that one of our store clerks is to wed in the early spring, one of our most accomplished and beautiful young girls.

The weather Bureau has sent Nolte Bros. a set of new flags.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Conrad entertained to dinner Sunday three of our most worthy old bachelors. They were Dr. S. B. Adkisson, E. A. Kissam and F. P. Payne.

Mrs. Robertson and sister, Miss Annie, returned to their home in Earlington, accompanied by Charles Wendelkin after a visit with their sister, Mrs. Wendelkin.

Chintz Royalty, County Surveyor, was in town Saturday.

In Hardinsburg—Mr. Tucker and Mr. Gardner both qualified as deputy sheriffs, last week.

Judge Milton Board has opened a law office on South side of Court Square.

Mr. F. A. Carter, of Holt's Bottom, and Miss Susie F. Mattingly were married in the Catholic church by Father Gabe.

M. H. Beard purchased Mrs. Annie Bishop's residence in the West End for $1,400. The property was originally owned by Dr. J. M. Taylor.

From Hawesville Plantealer—The trains on the "Texas" road have fewer mishaps and make better schedule than any road on earth.

The Republican officers all took charge Monday morning. They have every office in the county save that of Circuit Clerk, held by W. L. Sterrett.

In Stephensport—Oh my! Ain't Frank Ferry a dandy looking Ophelia.

The say Gus Shellman is making a good jailer and we're proud of it.

C. C. Lewis is collecting old postage stamps for a young lady who wants to complete her education.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Shellman gave a big masquerade party. The following characters were well represented: Aunt Ophelia, Frank Ferry; Ladies of Fashion, Dr. D. White and Hewitt Hawkins; Night, Mrs. R. A. Smith; Milk Maid, Mrs. Georgia Driskell; Milk Maid, Blanche Mosely; Paper Girl, Fannie McCoy; Morning, Lena Payne; Fortune Teller, Bettie Allen; Grandma, Sallie Hiner; Topsy, Mrs. Frany Ferry; Indian Girl, Georgia Hawkins; Red Riding Hood, Mrs. R. W. Vaughan.

X-Rays in Tuberculosis.

In the finished positive photographic print, the lungs of a normal person show white—this representing the air contained in the cells of the lungs. If the lung is diseased—as in pneumonia—it will show dark, i. e., the cells being occluded with matter. Tuberculosis is diagnosed by the spotted, mottled appearance of the affected lungs.

Soya Bean Oil Production.

Soya bean oil, which originates principally in Manchuria, is almost entirely controlled by Japanese. The supply of beans last year was very large and the amount of oil turned out was limited only by the capacity of mills. A number of large new plants were started both in Manchuria and Japan and most of the already established mills increased their capacity.

Why Turn to East in Prayer?

The scientist will tell you that praying with the face toward the east comes from ancient worship of the sun. Sun worshipers, starting out on the day's work to plant, hunt or kill, would turn toward the rising god to pray for success.—Chicago American.

DISTILLERS FACE PROBLEM OF DISPOSING OF 60,000,000 GALLONS BONDED WHISKEY

Cincinnati, Jan. 6.—George F. Deiterle, Cincinnati distiller, has been authorized to go to Washington to discuss with the Federal officials the problem of disposing of the bonded whiskey in the United States. This was announced at the close of a meeting of 100 distillers from all sections of the country here today. Mr. Deiterle presided at the conference.

Of the total of 60,000,000 gallons of bonded whiskey in the United States 35,000,000 gallons are in warehouses of Kentucky.

No way of disposing of this immense quantity of liquor, valued at hundreds of millions of dollars, has been provided by Congress except by exportation, and even that will be prohibited after January 16, when the Federal dry amendment goes into effect.

$1,500,000 OF LETTUCE AND CELERY.

The lettuce and celery crops of Florida contribute annually about $1,500,000 to the incomes of the truck growers in that State. About 4,000 acres now are devoted to the culture of these crops and this area is being increased constantly.

AMERICAN HORSES MAKE BAD SHOWING

GREAT WAR FOUND US POORLY
PREPARED IN ARTILLERY ANIMALS.

QUALITY OF BLOOD COUNTS

French Army Furnished the Thorough-breeds that Enabled Our Guns to Stop Ludendorff's Drive Toward Paris and Victory.

If, after seventy-five years of exhaustive and convincing experimentation, a work that had cost the great military powers of Continental Europe—Russia, Austria, Hungary, the German Empire, France and Italy—in the aggregate a matter of $400,000,000 or $500,000,000, additional proof of the superlative value of thoroughbred blood in the military horse and the comparative worthlessness of cold-blood that proof was supplied by the experience of the Second Division of the American Expeditionary Force in the summer of 1918. The Second Division was the division in which the famous Marine Corps was brigaded. The Second was one of the best equipped of the American grand units as regards horsemanship. The cream of the remount service was in its artillery and transport departments.

In June, 1918, the Second Division was ordered from a quiet sector of the western front near Verdun to the western angle of the great Marne salient. The German offensive of March to June had created in the French line, Foch had sensed the impending Ludendorff thrust that was to win Paris and a victorious peace, and he was assembling all his available soldiers to meet it. The carrying out of this order by the Second Division involved a march of less than 100 miles, 97 to be exact. Yet 80 per cent of the cold-blooded horses of the artillery brigade succumbed to the rigors of this more-dreaded march without having come under gunfire. Upward of half the horses that dropped out of line were so completely done up they were unfit to be sent to base stations for recuperation with the ultimate object of returning to service.

The French divisions that accompanied the American divisions on this march lost no more than five per cent of their horses. But the French artillery, cavalry and transport horses were half and three-quarter breeds, the produce of a system of breeding that had been instituted by a far-sighted government sixty or seventy years before the outbreak of the great war.

Second Division Suffers.
Because of the collapse of its horse equipment and artillery brigade of the Second Division did not reach its objective until a day after the great struggle that was to terminate in the winning appeal of the German army for an armistice in October had begun. The Second Division fought the first day without artillery protection and suffered outrageously in consequence. The artillery brigade reached the zone of conflict late in the second day and was enabled to take part in the series of actions that completely deranged Ludendorff's ambitious plan of conquest and put the great German army on the defensive only because American remount officers were able to re-equip it from the surplus horse supply of the French army with half and three-quarter breeds. The French were in a position to furnish these indispensable animals because up to the beginning of March the war had been a war of position rather than a war of movement and no hard demand had been made on the artillery and cavalry horse reserves of the French army.

When the great war came to its unexpected finish the United States had under arms, at home and abroad, some 3,700,000 soldiers, of which 974,000 were infantry, 394,000 were engineers, 389,000 were field artillery, but only 29,000 were cavalry. The field artillery was horsed after a fashion. So was the engineer contingent. But the quality of the horses that served the field artillery and the engineer contingent generally was no better, if indeed it was as good, than was the quality of the horses that failed the artillery brigade of the Second Division in the march from Verdun to the Marne salient.

Our Cavalry Not There.
For such masses of infantry and artillery there should have been 250,000 to 350,000 cavalry, according to the most advanced military opinion in the United States and abroad. Yet only an insignificant fraction of the absurdly small mounted contingent of the gigantic military establishment of the United States of November 1st, 1918—the second, third, sixth and fifteenth cavalry regiments—was in France. Most of our 29,000 troopers were patrolling the Mexican frontier. Moreover only a moiety of the so-called American cavalry forces in France was mounted. At no time was it possible to completely horse the second, third, sixth and fifteenth regiments. The troopers of these regiments, when they were not serving with machine gun contingents, were guarding munitions and quartermaster's stores. This condition was due to the disgraceful fact that the United States had no suitable mounts for its cavalry. France and Great Britain, to insure prompt and effective co-operation by the American grand units in the great counter offensive of Foch might spare serviceable artillery horses of the half and three-quarter bred types because, as had already been pointed out, the struggle for civilization up to the beginning of 1918 on the western front had been for the most part a war of position rather than one of maneuver. Their reserves of artillery horses had not been exhausted. But neither France nor Great Britain felt disposed to equip with horses the cavalry of an army that should have entered the conflict with the best mounted and best equipped cavalry to be found on the planet.—Advt.

INCOME TAX. And Things You Should Know About It.

Twenty thousand persons last year paid a fine of $5 each for failure to file an income-tax return for 1918 although their incomes for that year was not taxable.

The revenue act provides an exemption of $1,000 for single persons, $2,000 for married persons and heads of families, and an additional exemption of $200 for each person dependent upon the taxpayer, if such person is under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support. The delinquents last year were persons whose income exactly equaled the amount of the exemptions and who considered it unnecessary, others whose income was nontaxable because of dependents, and who were under a similar mistaken impression.

For example, a single man with a net income of $1,000 was supporting a sister for whom he was allowed an exemption of $200 placing his income in the nontaxable list. For this reason he did not file a return. When his delinquency was discovered through a return filed by the employer, who is required to report payments of $1,000 or more to each employee, he was fined $5.

Must File a Return.
To avoid penalty every person whose income for the last year equaled or exceeded $1,000, or $2,000 according to their marital status or their status as the head of a family, must file a return. The law makes no exceptions the penalty for failure being a fine of not more than $1,000.

Head of a Family.
Whether or not a person is the "head of a family" and entitled to a $2,000 exemption is a question to be determined largely by circumstances surrounding each individual case. The fixing of his status decides, in many instances, whether his income is taxable or nontaxable.

A head of a family is defined by Treasury regulation as "a person who actually supports and maintains one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship by marriage or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependents is based upon some moral or legal obligation." A single person is the head of a family if he is the sole support of relatives living in the same house with him and if he exercises control of household affairs. The words "sole support" are used in the sense that there is no other person to whom the dependent may look for support. Income from other sources, such as interest on stock, bonds, etc., if meagre enough still to leave the recipient dependent, does not preclude a claim for exemption such income must be included in the return of the head of the family.

Can Not Divide Exemption.
The $1,000 additional exemption allowed the head of a family can not be divided between two single members of a household. A division of responsibility excludes the parties from such claim. A single person who does not qualify as the head of a family may still claim an exemption of $200 for each person dependent upon him for support. If such person is under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support. A son who has left home but who sends to his mother more than half the sum required for her support is entitled to the $200 exemption provided the mother can not support herself. Otherwise the amount must be considered as a gift, and, therefore, is not deductible. A son living at home and supporting his mother may claim the $2,000 exemption allowed the head of a family, but not an additional exemption of $200 unless the mother is incapable of self-support.

FIRST WOMAN IN KENTUCKY TO BE MEMBER OF AMERICAN LEGION

Lawrenceburg, Ky., Jan. 9.—The monthly meeting of Anderson Post No. 34, American Legion, was held at the Courthouse. Fifteen new members were added to the roster which makes seventy-five members of the local post. Mrs. Mary Dowling Bond, J. M. Johnson and Jesse Teator were elected honorary members. Mrs. Bond is one of the most prominent club women of the State and was formerly president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. She is County Historian of Anderson County and enjoys the unique distinction of being the first woman in Kentucky to be an honorary member of the American Legion.

ATTORNEY'S DUTY TO STOP PROFITEERING, SAYS HEINZ

Prosecutor Has No Time to Answer Questions Concerning Action in Other Cities

With the housewives of this city clamoring for direct, vigorous action against the food gougers, whom they hold responsible for the undernourishment of their children, Francis T. Kane, United States district attorney declared yesterday he was powerless to check profiteering.

Mr. Kane complained he was handicapped by the refusal of Jay Cooke, formerly food administrator of Philadelphia, to reorganize the fair-price board. That, he said, of publicity, ought to be the duty of profiteers, he said.

But Howard Heinz, attorney for Pennsylvania, told Mr. Kane on that point. Mr. Kane on that point. Mr. Kane on that point. Mr. Kane on that point.

The district attorney said that the Lever food-control act proved to be ineffective in cases of profiteering as distinct from profiteering. He reiterated that it would be extremely difficult to prove violations.

Mr. Kane acknowledges that prices are inordinately high. Ignoring the price of meats, regarding which Robert M. Simmers, agent of the State Food and Dairy Department and government food and drug inspector, has given him a mass of evidence, he said that "the prices of green vegetables are terrible."

Mr. Kane said that he was not a good manager. I know what to do but I don't have the money to do it.

Great Quantities of Food Seized by Federal Agents in Big Cities

INDICATIONS of the real punch behind the high cost of living were given in many cities.

While Attorney General Palmer's committee that he intended to prosecute higher prices than those listed by word came from Chicago, St. Louis, quantities of foodstuffs by federal agents proceeded under the food-control act.

In Chicago 1282 tubs of butter, 284,180 pounds of coffee, wheat and in Birmingham 100 barrels

LAST season's suit still holds together and we can half-sole our shoes. And you can still buy a big generous tin of the jolliest old pipe tobacco that ever came down the pike, without mortgaging the old homestead. Hooray!

Good old Kentucky is still growing Velvet's honest fragrant leaf. We're still ageing Velvet in the wood. Velvet's just as smooth and mellow and mild as it ever was. The quality's there and the quantity's there just the same.

Take the "cost" out of the "high cost of living" and what do you get? Why, "high living" of course. Well, sir, that's what Velvet does.

It's like Velvet Joe says:

"Anybody can tell you how much Velvet costs. But only yo' old pipe can tell you how much Velvet is worth."

There's goodness knows how many pipe loads in every tin of Velvet. Or if you want the mildest cigarette ever—there's 45 big ones in every tin.

REGULATORY FOOD POWER IS NEEDED

Cooke Reiterates Refusal to Return for Food Fight

Howard Heinz, food administrator of Pennsylvania, in an interview with the BRECKENRIDGE NEWS, said he is in his power to induce profiteers to reorganize fair-price boards, as requested by the States attorney general, as his opinion, that the boards will be secured upon the high cost of living, that it rests with the States to assume regulatory of the entire system, of food.

The refusal of Jay Cooke, food administrator for Philadelphia, to return to this city from New York and reorganize the fair-price board here, Mr. Heinz expressed that Mr. Cooke may yet be to assume that burden.

Mr. Cooke, in a talk over the telephone last night said he was in his determination not to leave his duties as food administrator.

War Is Over, Says Cooke.
"The war is over," said Mr. Cooke. "I don't see why I should come back to the job of food administrator. I offered for that office during the present situation may be an emergency of the war, but I can't see how I should get mixed up in it. If I would return and ask me to do the work that would be a matter."

The Successful Farmer Raises Bigger Crops and cuts down costs by investment in labor-saving machinery.

Good prices for the farmers' crops encourage new investment, more production and greater prosperity.

But the success of agriculture depends on the growth of railroads—the modern beasts of burden that haul the crops to the world's markets.

The railroads—like the farms—increase their output and cut down unit costs by the constant investment of new capital.

With fair prices for the work they do, the railroads are able to attract new capital for expanding their facilities.

Rates high enough to yield a fair return will insure railroad growth, and prevent costly traffic congestion, which invariably results in poorer service at higher cost.

National wealth can increase only as our railroads grow.

Poor railroad service is dear at any price. No growing country can long pay the price of inadequate transportation facilities.

PROMINENT LODGE WORKER NOW EVER MINDFUL OF DUTY

Mrs. Iseman Thinks It Wrong
If She Didn't Publicly
Praise Trutona.

Paducah, Ky., Jan. 12.—Practically everyone in Paducah and vicinity knows, likes and esteems Mrs. A. L. Iseman, 402 Washington street, Paducah. She has been prominent in lodge circles here for many years, having held several high positions in the local W. O. W. circle.

"I must admit that I was almost ready to 'hand in my checks' when I began taking Trutona," she said. "I had been suffering from a complication of troubles for several years. My bladder and kidneys were out of shape and my nerves were in bad condition. I had scarcely appetite and found it hard to sleep well at night."

"I do not like publicity and consequently am not enthusiastic over having my name used, but I feel that I owe this statement to the general public, and this time I am willing to give it. I am not nervous any more and my kidney and bladder troubles have vanished. I have a splendid appetite too, and sleep well at night now. Trutona is the finest medicine for liver trouble I've ever found. My complexion has cleared up and I've gained in weight during the past two months. Trutona seems to have made a new woman of me."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Cloverport, at Wednesday's Drug Store; in Hardinsburg, at Lex's Pharmacy; in Irvington at Park's Pharmacy.—Advertisement.

KEEP KNOCKED-OUT TEETH

Dentist Can Replace Them in Mouth
So That They Will Soon Give Good Service.

When one's front teeth are knocked out there is no need to leave them on the floor, for they can be reinserted very well by a good dentist. Dr. H. M. Snively tells in the Lancet (London) of two cases in which the teeth were completely dislocated from their sockets.

In one case the teeth were placed in salt water while the dentist carefully washed out the sockets. Then they were reinserted, a stitch or two placed in the gums and the jaws were bandaged shut so that the teeth bit on a pad of lint. In the other case the teeth still hung to the gums, so the sockets were cleaned out without disturbing the teeth.

In both cases the teeth became solidly fixed and the patients could use them for normal biting a few months after the accident.

Dr. C. De Witt Henry of New York replaced not long ago the teeth of a truck driver that had been knocked out in a collision. The man had picked his teeth from the gutter and run up to the dentist's office carrying them in his hand.

PROMINENT MEADE CO. MAN KILLED BY TRAIN.

News was received here today of the accidental death Wednesday morning near Crawfordsville, Ind., of Lee J. Whelan, a Meade County, Kentucky man, well known in Louisville, who was killed when a Vandalia train struck his automobile as he was returning from taking his daughter, Doris, to the station. He was the son of the late John Whelan, several times a candidate for Representative in Meade County. He was born at Flaherty, Ky., May 12, 1867. For some time he practiced law in Crawfordsville, but later engaged in farming. Besides his wife and two daughters he is survived by seven brothers and three sisters, among them William P. Whelan and L. O. Whelan and Mrs. August Koertner, of Louisville.—Louisville Times.

STATE HIGHWAY TRUNK LINE BILL

To Be Offered In General Assembly And Its Passage
Regarded Probable.

A state highway trunk line with at least one main improved road for each county in the State is provided for in a bill to be offered in the general assembly. The measure has the approval of the State Road Commissioner Boggs and all other road authorities of the State and its passage is regarded as extremely possible.

A committee of well known road experts are working out the details of the measure to be offered, and it will be presented in each house early in the session. Another committee is working out plans for raising the revenue to finance the project.

The measure contemplates the construction of these principal trunk lines to reach every county in the State, at State expense, with such supplementary funds as may be available from the federal government. The state will also maintain the roads when built, which will allow the counties to extend local road development with local funds. The only expense of the system required to be borne by the counties is for payment for right of way where it is not contributed by the landowner.

The proposed measure, if passed, will not interfere with the immediate construction of roads already designated in this part of the state. Counties which have already pledged aid to roads designated will be required to fulfill their contracts, as these projects will be carried to completion without waiting for the provisions of the new road law.

The bill providing for the new state highway trunk line system divides the state into routes, designated as projects. Projects covering western Kentucky are:

Project No. 2.—From Guthrie to Henderson via Hopkinsville, Nortonville, Madisonville and Dixon.

Project No. 9.—From Paducah to Louisville via Smithland, Marion, Morganfield, Henderson, Owensboro, Hawesville, Hardinsburg, Brandenburg, Tip Top, West Point.

Project No. 10.—From Paducah to Kentucky-Tennessee state line via Mayfield and Murray.

Project No. 11.—From Owensboro to Smithland via Calhoun, Greenville, Nortonville, Dawson Springs, Princeton and Eddyville.

Project No. 12.—From Owensboro to Tip Top via Hartford, Morgantown, Bowling Green, Glasgow, Munfordsville and Elizabethtown.

Project No. 13.—From Hartford to Elizabethtown via Leitchfield.

Project No. 14.—From Paducah to Wickliffe.

MEXICO'S WEALTH OF SILVER

Aroused Greed of Conquerors and Brought Only Bondage and Misery to the People.

Mexico has produced a steady stream of silver ever since its conquest by Cortez in 1519. But while the supply seemed inexhaustible, it brought more misery than happiness to the nation. In the opinion of the Salt Lake Tribune, because it afforded the incentive to bring conquerors to its shores to enslave the people.

The Spaniards robbed and enslaved the Aztecs to control the silver supply. They blotted out a semi-barbarous civilization that had built great irrigation systems, massive temples and beautiful cities, and the once proud and happy people were placed under the yoke for four centuries.

An almost uncanny gift in ferreting out the big silver deposits was possessed by the Spanish governors. The cost of gunpowder was so high, though, that only the richest finds were worked. Only ore that produced over 100 ounces of silver to the ton was mined. It is said that the owner of the Quinteca mine, in the Alamos district, a Senor Alameda, on the marriage of his daughter, lined the bridal chamber of the palace with bars of silver and paved the way to the church with the metal.

Large profits are made from demolishing some of the old houses in the Chihuahua district, and reducing the material in them for silver. The natives who built them used to use the run of mine slag, in the absence of cheaper building material, and much valuable ore went into the buildings.

Mr. Jno. D. Babbage, Cloverport, Ky. Dear Sir: Enclosed find my check for $1.50 for The Breckenridge News 1930. Our city is full of overflowing tourists. Conservative estimates place the number at more than one hundred thousand. They are spending money like the late Ingersoll advised, "Spending it as though dollars were leaves on trees and they owned whole forests." The weather is the perfect California article, and these people are gay, festive and care free. The idea seems to be "more speed," caring little for direction on destination. These conditions seem to be prevailing every where that I've been lately, both East and West. Can you tell me when the bubble will burst?

WHITE WINTER IS FORECAST

Palm Beach Likely to See Preponderance of Snowy Attire; May Be Summer Fashion.

White has been continually emphasized on the French summer resorts. The vogue for white frocks commenced with the models shown at the races, and has been so much reiterated from the fashionable villas d'eaux, at Deauville, at Vichy, and Aix les Bains, that the question is asked if this does not augur a white season for Palm Beach this winter and also perhaps a white season for us next summer.

The French fashion magazines speak of the "Uniforme Blanc," commenting that many of the young girls in their white taffetas or white mousselines seemed to be so similarly attired, many of them with the scalloped flounces, that it had almost the effect of a uniform.

White satin combined with the many laces which have returned to fashion is also emphasized. The tremendous opportunities for dainty treatment in the sheer white fabrics combined with lace gives opportunity for the designer which it is quite certain will not be neglected here in America.

CARGO OF NEW SUGAR ARRIVES

In Boston Shipment Consisted
Of 4,833,280 Pounds From Cuba. More To Follow.

Bringing the first cargo of new crop sugar from Cuba, the American steamer Lake Jessup, Capt. F. H. Pray, arrived yesterday morning from Nuevitas, and went to the terminal of the Revere Sugar Refining Company. The shipment consisted of 4,833,280 pounds.

The vessel had capacity for 320,000 pounds more, but there was no more sugar available and she was compelled to leave without a full cargo.

In order to expedite the refining of the shipment, the work of unloading began as soon as the lines were made fast. A force of 125 longshoremen were paid the Sunday wage of $1.30 per hour each to work on the vessel. When they knocked off last evening the contents of Nos. 1 and 3 holds had all been landed.

MEXICO'S MANY "LOST" MINES

Operators and Prospectors Driven
From Their Work by Threats and Depredations of Yaquis.

Many of the lost mines of Mexico were the result of depredations of the Yaqui Indians. They killed or drove prospectors from the country and obliterated marks of the workings. Thus many mines, with great possibilities, were lost.

One of the mines of the Estrella del Norte Mining company was lost for many years. The only clue to its location was found on an old Jesuit map, which said it could be seen by looking from a church door. The church was found and the land dug up as far as could be seen from the door, but no trace of the mine was found. Later, after the search was discontinued, a wall that had been built at a date later than the mine, fell down and exposed another door. Men with field glasses, looking from this door, discovered the old mine.

Many of the churches of Mexico that cause the world to wonder, because of their architecture and priceless ornaments, owe their existence to mines. The Baroyeca church, built in 1792, was built from the wealth derived from the Mina Grande mine. In Baroyeca mountain. Prior to 1850 the walls were lined with sheets of pure silver from the mine. The candleabra, the altar rails and other parts of the sanctuary were of silver, and the altar vessels were of pure gold.

PLATINUM SELLS FOR $130 AN OUNCE

Since August Price Has Increased $5 Monthly. Supply Short, Demand Great.

The platinum market during the first quarter of 1919 was easier than in 1918, owing to the facts that the governmental restriction on the use of platinum had been removed and that the Government was disposing of its surplus stocks. The low price of $99 an ounce was reached late in March and was maintained about a month, but the price gradually stiffened until August, when the Government stocks were exhausted, and then abruptly rose to $110 an ounce. Since the middle of August the price has continued to advance about $5 an ounce a month, the demand for the metal has been strong, and the supply has been short.

During the first nine months of 1919 about 40,400 ounces of platinum were imported and importation at this rate will probably be continued during the rest of the year; so that, if the normal domestic production of 7,000 to 10,000 ounces is maintained, about 54,800 ounces of new platinum should be available, aside from the stocks of platinum, about 65,000 ounces, held at the beginning of 1919.

So far as known there has been little change in the domestic mining of platinum. The wide search made in 1918 for domestic sources of platinum has apparently yielded little results. Columbia may supply more crude platinum in 1920 than in the past, but its producing capacity is limited by the methods employed in washing the gravels from which the metal is obtained. Practically no supplies can be expected from Russia for several years. The osmiridium field of Tasmania appears to need only higher prices to stimulate larger production, but even with this stimulus it can probably produce not much more than 2,000 ounces a year.

According to James M. Hill, of the United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, there seems to be little hope of any marked increase in the output of platinum in the United States or Canada over the small output heretofore made, and as the supplies are below normal and the demand is large it is reasonably certain that the price of platinum metals in this country during 1920 will be at least as high as it was during the last quarter of 1919, and possibly higher.

Work While at Work.

It's a good thing not to take your hobbies to the office. It's also a good thing to dispense with easy chairs and other luxuries in your place of business. Take the rest cure at home. The office is a place of toll. It should be comfortable, but its appointments should be suggestive of work and efficiency rather than leisure. Instead of making a man feel like taking a nap the office environment should be an urge to his best efforts.

"Fireproof" Orientals.

Orientals seem to be immune to the fierce heat of the fireproof in ocean steamers, and can endure for a great length of time temperature that would speedily prostrate white men.

Y. W. C. A. PLANS WORLD PROGRAM

Leader Calls Association a "Stabilizing Influence" in Outlining Post-War Program for Women—Federal Council of Churches to Announce "Y. W. C. A. Sunday."

Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., chairman of the National Educational Campaign Committee of the 1920 World Service Program of the Young Women's Christian Association, has made the following statement:

"Since the war we are more than ever aware of the economic, industrial, educational, social and religious diff-culties which beset the lives of girls and women everywhere. In meeting the post-war needs of women the Young Women's Christian Association stands as an instrument of service, tested and proven by war, and organized to meet the manifold problems of peace.

"Because of its fifty odd years of experience in meeting fundamental problems affecting girls, the Young Women's Christian Association is an organization particularly fitted to exert a stabilizing influence upon the troubled times through a consistent program of service for girls and women.

"American women are asking how they may share in the world's reconstruction. They can do so by enlisting the support of their communities for this World Service Program, which will insure to the world a healthier and better womanhood.

"This campaign of the Y. W. C. A. to tell the people of the United States about its work and to raise $3,000,000 with which to carry on Y. W. C. A. work during 1920 in the United States, Europe, China, Japan, India, South America, Egypt, Siberia and Mexico will close the week of February 22 to 29, which will be known as Y. W. C. A. Week.

"The Federal Council of Churches will probably set one Sunday as a time for ministers throughout the country to address their congregations on general conditions affecting women and the Young Women's Christian Association as an instrument of service.

"The immediate task is to bring to the people of the United States a knowledge of conditions affecting the lives of women in all parts of the world. We can no longer ignore the character, the manner of life and the ideals of other peoples, whether we want to or not. A special call is now coming to the Association from China, Japan, India and South America, where work was held back during the war because of the necessity for special activity in France and the United States.

"The World Service Program calls for $4,500,000. Of this amount $1,500,000 has already been secured."

The educational campaign committee includes among its members Mrs. Robert E. Speer, president of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A.; Mrs. Henry P. Davison, Mrs. William Van V. Hayes, Mrs. Robert L. Dickinson, Mrs. William Adams Brown, Mrs. Van Sanford Merle-Smith, Mrs. Lewis H. Lapham, Miss Ellen Hale Stevenson, Mrs. Frederic B. Pratt and Mrs. Herbert Lee Pratt.

Tolling a Big Bell.

At the Church of the Sacred Heart, in Paris, a 22-ton bell is tolled by electricity. A choir boy now does the work which formerly required the services of five men.

For Sale

We have for sale or trade for good mules or mule colts, four brood mares, aged from 8 to 12. Three of these mares are with foal by jack. Two are choice ones and the others are good. All are large, (above 15 hands) and sound and all are good workers in either single or double harness.

Here is a chance to get a good general purpose animal that will pay for herself with colts and give her owner good service both in the field or on the road at the same time.

We also have for sale eight choice young milk cows, all are fresh now and each is a bargain at the price we ask.

Buy Mules!

I have at all times the best collection of mules that this Country affords. It is my desire to help improve the conditions of our county. No better asset to a farmer than his team. Buy the kind that will sell again. I have a very select lot of mare mules 3 and 4 years old with size and quality. They must be sold in order to make room for others. I sell small mules at a cheap price. Medium size and big mules at their value. All mules sold under a positive guarantee. Come to see me. I appreciate your liberal patronage in the past and ask for your consideration in the future.
